

Richard Uhrig

Contact

Phone: (703) 926-0102

Email: richard.uhrig@gmail.com

Website: sites.google.com/view/richarduhrig

Employment Experience

Bureau of Labor Statistics	Research Economist	Beginning July 2022
-----------------------------------	---------------------------	----------------------------

Education

University of California, Santa Barbara	Sept. 2016-June 2022
--	-----------------------------

- Ph.D. in Economics; Received June 2022
- Dissertation Committee
 - Kelly Bedard (Chair) University of California, Santa Barbara kelly@econ.ucsb.edu
 - Javier Birchenall University of California, Santa Barbara javier.birchenall@ucsb.edu
 - Peter Rupert University of California, Santa Barbara peter.rupert@ucsb.edu
- Certificate In College and University Teaching (CCUT)
- MA in Economics; Received August 2017

College of William & Mary	Aug. 2012-May 2016
--------------------------------------	---------------------------

- BA in Economics and Mathematics, with Honors; Received May 2016

Working Papers

- Job Market Paper: Uhrig, Richard. "The Effect of State-Level Rate Bill Abolition on School Attendance in the 19th Century United States", available at SSRN 3802015 or github (2022)

Publications

- Cross, Jeffrey, and Richard Uhrig. "Do Fans Impact Sports Outcomes? A COVID-19 Natural Experiment", Journal of Sports Economics. May 2022. Available here
- Toyonaga, Kenji, Charles R Johnson, and Richard Uhrig. "Multiplicities: Adding a Vertex to a Graph" Applied and Computational Matrix Analysis. Springer Proceedings in Mathematics & Statistics, Vol 192 (2017) pp 117-126.

Academic Experience

University of California, Santa Barbara	Project Director	June 2021-pres.
--	-------------------------	------------------------

- Santa Barbara County Foodbank Impact Study

University of California, Santa Barbara	Undergraduate Honors Advisor	Oct. 2019-April 2020
--	-------------------------------------	-----------------------------

- "Does Trouble in the Economy Lead to Trouble at School?" by Dylan Schmerer

University of California, Santa Barbara	Teaching Associate	Jan. 2019-June 2019
--	---------------------------	----------------------------

- ECON 134A: Financial Management (Instructor of Record)

University of California, Santa Barbara	Teaching Assistant	Jan. 2017-June 2022
--	---------------------------	----------------------------

- ECON 204A: Macroeconomic Theory I (PhD level)
- ECON 181: International Finance
- ECON 134A: Financial Management

- ECON 114B: Development Economics
- Econ 5: Statistics for Economists
- ECON 2: Principles of Macroeconomics
- PSTAT 109: Statistics for Economists

Research Interests

- Applied Microeconomics
- Labor Economics
- Economics of Education
- Economic History

Associations and Honors

- Graduate Student Research and Training Grant Recipient (April 2020)
- Research Quarter Fellowship, UC Santa Barbara (Spring 2020)
- Graduate Fellow - Broom Center for Demography at the UC Santa Barbara (Jan. 2018-June 2022)

Skills

- Programming: Python (Proficient), Stata (Proficient), LaTeX (Proficient)
- Language: English (Native), German (Intermediate), Spanish (Beginner)